- L. Policyholder's Release to Philadelphia: The Foundation, Eiguren, Wallace and Hoover agree that the release set forth in paragraph K. shall constitute (a) a full and complete release of any further liability whatsoever, whether contractual or non-contractual, that Philadelphia may have under Policy No. PHSD034149; and (b) a full and complete release of any further liability, whether contractual or non-contractual, that Philadelphia may have under Policy No. PHSD057201 in relation to matters that are the subject of this Agreement and/or any liability with respect to the Civic Entities or CCDC. To the extent any officer, director or volunteer (other than Eiguren, Wallace or Hoover) does not execute a policyholder release, the Foundation shall indemnify and hold Philadelphia harmless from any claim for coverage by the non-releasing officer, director or volunteer. The Foundation shall provide copies of any executed releases to Philadelphia.
- M. Agency Account Notes or Extension Agreements: Upon receipt of the $2.5 million from the escrow account, the UI shall cancel all agency account notes and extension agreements relating to any agency account notes that may exist between the UI and the Foundation.

No claims against the Civic Entities or CCDC shall be dismissed.
- O. No Admission of Liability: The Parties understand that this Agreement represents a settlement and compromise of all disputed claims, counter-claims, cross-claims, third party claims, and defenses. It is understood and agreed that the acts done and evidenced by this Agreement and the release obtained hereunder are not an admission of liability on the part of any Party by whom liability has been and is expressly denied. Except as specifically provided for in Paragraph J. above, each Party shall bear their own legal fees and expenses arising out of the settled litigation or disputes.

publicly available document. - R. Public Announcement of Settlement Agreement: The Parties agree that the only press release any of the Parties shall issue regarding the Settlement Agreement shall be in the form attached hereto as Attachment C. Any Party hereto may respond to press inquiries in a manner that is consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the contents of the press release
- S. Advice of Counsel: Each Party acknowledges that he, she or it has been encouraged to and has sought advice of counsel with respect to this Agreement and that it, he or she understands its provisions and enters into the Agreement freely and upon the advice of counsel.
- T. - U. Severability: Except for the obligation of the Contributing Parties to make payments into the escrow account as set out above, every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. In the event any term or provision of this Agreement is declared to be illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever by a court of competent jurisdiction, such illegality or invalidity should not affect the balance of the terms and provisions of the Agreement, which terms and provisions shall remain binding and enforceable.
- V. Dispute Resolution: The Parties agree to submit any dispute regarding this Agreement, including a claim for breach by any Party, including any claim that a Contributing Party has failed to make an agreed-upon contribution to the Settlement Fund, to Judge Lukens for final, decision by binding arbitration. Arbitration shall be the sole remedy to enforce this Agreement. Any arbitration award issued by Judge Lukens shall be final, binding and subject to confirmation under the Federal Arbitration Act. Judge Lukens' fees and costs associated with any arbitration shall be borne by the party against whom the arbitration award is entered.
- W. Remedies: The sole remedy for breach of an obligation in this agreement is a claim for the relief agreed to herein. No breach of an obligation entitles any party to reassert any claim, cross-claim, counter-claim, or third party claim, or file a new civil action, seeking all or some of the relief sought in, or of the nature sought in, In re University Place/Idaho Water Center Litigation, Cause No. CV-

OC-0405740-D. Nor does any breach entitle any non-party to that litigation to assert any claim other than one to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

- X. Award of Legal Fees and Costs: In the event arbitration before Judge Lukens is held to resolve any disputes arising out of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable legal fees and costs. In the event a Contributing Party fails to make an agreed-upon contribution to the Settlement Fund, the failure of which causes legal fees or costs to be incurred by any other Party to this Agreement, these parties shall be entitled to an award of such legal fees and costs from Judge Lukens.

JOINT PRESS RELEASE

University Place litigation settled.

(Boise) – The University of Idaho and the Consolidated Investment Trust (CIT), managed by the University of Idaho Foundation, will share in an $8.3 million dollar mediated settlement of legal disputes arising from the University Place real estate project. Attorney General Lawrence Wasden, the University of Idaho and its Board of Regents, the University of Idaho Foundation, Inc., and the other parties announced the settlement today.

The State Board of Education, acting as the University's regents, approved the settlement earlier today. The Foundation's board and Attorney General Wasden previously approved the agreement. The Attorney General has enforcement authority regarding charitable trusts and oversight authority over non-profit corporations.

The CIT, which consists of several University of Idaho endowments and which is managed by the University of Idaho Foundation, will receive approximately $5.8 million under terms of the settlement. In 2005, the Foundation initiated litigation to recover $12 million originally borrowed from the CIT as interim financing for University Place. The University joined in that action. Prior to today's settlement, the Foundation repaid more than one-half of the original loan. The settlement will extinguish the remaining principal and interest balance the Foundation owes to the CIT.

In addition to the CIT portion of the settlement, the University of Idaho will receive $2.5 million from the settlement funds to resolve all of the University's claims in the litigation. This payment will reimburse the University for some of the losses it incurred on this project.

The parties to the settlement are the University of Idaho Foundation and its directors, officers and volunteers; the University of Idaho; the University Regents; Attorney General Wasden on behalf of the Consolidated Investment Trust (CIT) and its beneficiaries; Great American Insurance Companies, the fidelity insurer for the University of Idaho and the University of Idaho Foundation; Philadelphia Indemnity Insurance Company, the directors and officers insurer for the University of Idaho Foundation; Attorneys Liability Protection Society, Inc., A Risk Retention Group ("ALPS") the insurers for the law firms and the attorneys; State of Idaho Department of Administration - Risk Management Group, insurer for the State of Idaho and its employees; the Givens Pursley LLP law firm and its attorneys Roy L. Eiguren, L. Edward Miller and Franklin G. Lee; the Elam & Burke law firm and its attorney Ryan Armbruster; former University of Idaho President Dr. Robert Hoover; and former University of Idaho Vice President of Finance and Administration Jerry Wallace.

"The settlement follows months of factual investigation subsequent to the filing of lawsuits. The settlement is an arms-length resolution reached in good faith after several days of negotiation with the help of a neutral mediator who has no ties to the project or any of the parties. The claims, counterclaims, and third-party claims arising out of University Place presented complicated issues of fact and law. The settlement is a reasonable resolution of an extremely complex matter, avoids substantial future litigation costs, and is in the best interest of the University community," the parties said in a joint statement.

The settlement extinguishes all claims that the parties have against each other, but is not an admission of fault or liability by any of its parties.

The Foundation's contribution to the global settlement fund is $2.5 million. The $5.8 million is being contributed by the parties' insurers. The amount contributed by or on behalf of any specific party by the private insurers is confidential and has not been disclosed to the Foundation, the University, the Regents or the Attorney General.

With this settlement, the Foundation has now reduced its losses associated with the University Place Project from over $26 million to less than $10 million.

The Honorable Terry Lukens, a retired Washington state court judge, acted as mediator. Judge Lukens is affiliated with JAMS, a nationwide company providing alternative dispute resolution services.

The Foundation's civil action against Civic Partners, which was the initial private developer and project manager for the University Place project, and Civic Partners' counterclaim against the Foundation are not part of the settlement and remain pending in state district court in Ada County.
